SCULPTURE

ACCLAIMED SCULPTOR ROBERT ST. CROIX HAS HONORED KidSanctuary three times with unique and beautiful bronze sculptures at the entryway of each home. His latest artistic contribution is a life-size, realistic young boy with eyes full of optimism, hope and curiosity—qualities analogous to those of the young residents at Sam’s Cottage for Boys. St. Croix has been a South Florida luminary for more than 25 years, specializing in casting art bronze sculptures for national and international artists, as well as restoring broken or discolored bronzes. St. Croix’s artwork is shown in major private and corporate collections around the world. His wife Biba has a reputable contemporary fine art gallery on Worth Avenue in Palm Beach, Gallery Biba, which displays many of his sculptures.

BEHIND THE DESIGN

HOW WOULD YOU DEFINE THE STYLE YOUR DESIGN EXEMPLIFIES? DOES IT REFLECT YOUR PERSONAL AESTHETIC?

Throughout my career I have had commissions that are based on human figures of all ages, so it goes without saying that this sculpture reflects my personal aesthetic.

DESCRIBE YOUR SCULPTURE IN THREE WORDS.

Inviting, enduring, memorable.

WHAT IS SOMETHING YOU’VE LEARNED THROUGH YOUR EXPERIENCE WORKING WITH KIDSANCTUARY?

A talented pool of artists and designers, led by dedicated and caring executives, can produce amazing results.
